

THE FILM – 'The Spirit of '45' is an impassioned documentary about how the spirit of unity which buoyed Britain during the war years carried through to create a vision of a fairer, united society.

THE DEBATE – 'Why are Public Services & Trade Unions still important today?' with a panel including members of the West Surrey Trades Council and the University of Surrey University and College Union

Event sponsored by:

